HOPES FOR PLANETARIUM FAR FROM FADING

On page 1 of Campus News last week there appeared a brief commentary, gleaned from the pages of The Mercury. The commentary was written around a report of a meeting of the Wollongong City Council at which the future of the Wollongong planetarium had been discussed. Under the heading, Planetarium Hopes Fade, we reported Mr Glen Moore, of our own Physics Department, as having declared that the proposed Darling Harbour Space Theatre project had virtually put an end to any hope of building a planetarium at Wollongong.

Now we gather that the whole thing is so much eyewash and that Glen Moore was totally misrepresented in the report from which our material was culled. Indeed, in a subsequent issue of The Mercury a letter, written by Mr Barry Harper (also from Physics), was published to put the record straight.

In his letter Barry Harper stated, inter alia:

According to The Illawarra Mercury 2/4/86: 'Planetarium Society president Mr Glen Moore told council the Darling Harbour Space Theatre project had virtually put an end to any hope of building a planetarium in Wollongong.'

I took part in the society deputation at that meeting and both Mr Moore and I certainly do not feel and did not at the meeting express the feeling that the planetarium is a lost cause.

We believe the project is a viable one with enormous benefits to people of all ages and all backgrounds throughout our community.

From the number of people who attended the combined public meeting and Halley's Comet night at Fairy Meadow (estimated at between 15-20,000), the people of Wollongong are giving tremendous support.

The planetarium is an Illawarra initiative designed to provide a wider economic base for this area through the generation of tourism. The Government fund in question has been specifically allocated to the Illawarra for this purpose.

As an educational experience, it will be unsurpassed.

Those who feel strongly about the threatened loss of this regional facility should tell their local members and the Premier, Mr Wrان.

of the University Campus and the best offerings of the Bistro. The group was met at the port by the Port Manager, Mr Henry Lewis, and the Operations Manager, Mr David Hooper, who discussed some aspects of the development of the port and the operations of the coal loader. The ESCAP group had already visited the ports of Melbourne and Sydney and were heading to Newcastle and Brisbane in a program of executive training funded by the Australian Government through ADAB.

BACK TO SCHOOL FOR PARENTS

The Illawarra Mercury has reported that Illawarra parents are going back to school to learn skills to help their children learn to read and write.

Kaye Lowe, an executive teacher at Oak Flats Public School, has developed a course to help parents and teachers work together for the benefit of the children. Miss Lowe is a Masters student with the Centre for Studies in Literacy in the University, and the work reported by The Mercury is a direct result of her studies with us. The State government is so impressed with her work that they've awarded her almost $3,000 to package this course.

Miss Lowe hopes the course will reduce future cases of adult illiteracy.

The first five-session course, which finished recently, was a great success, Miss Lowe said, and she plans to expand another course during second term at Kemblawarra and Mt Warrigal public schools.

CULTURAL CLASHES

The seething hive of activity that is the University of Wollongong has managed to put on three exciting events, all on Friday May 2.

They are:

- * A Cultural Night put on by the Illawarra Committee for Overseas Students.
- * International House Annual Dinner.
- * A School of Creative Arts Happening.

Commenting on this happy over-abundance, a bemused Giles Pickford said that, if people did not want to clash their events with others, they could check in at a central point before choosing a date.

He volunteered himself as a person who usually knew what was happening when and, occasionally, why.

ION CHROMATOGRAPHY

The Department of Chemistry in association with Uniadvice will present a one day symposium at the University of Wollongong on Wednesday May 14.

Guest speakers are Dr D. Antonjuk, FSE Scientific; Dr J. Kirby, Waters Chromatography Division (Millipore Ltd); Dr C. Pangway, State Pollution Control Commission; Mr P. Riley, BHP Steel Division (Port Kembla); Dr G. Wallace, University of Wollongong; Dr P. Haddad, University of NSW.

Registration fee of $50 includes lectures, laboratory demonstrations, lunch and refreshments.

A discount for early registration of $5 will apply and a further student discount of $5 will also apply.

RUN FOR THEIR LIVES

'Run For Their Lives' is an annual, nationally promoted fund-raising event which brings together many thousands of runners (and their supporters) to achieve a worthwhile goal.

The 1986 goal is to raise $1 million for self sufficiency programs operated by International Christian and Relief Enterprises Limited in Africa and other Third World Countries.

Sponsored runners will raise the income of the event and help to ensure the success of this important Australian initiative.

Run for Their Lives will be organised in country and city areas. It is a race in which virtually anyone can be involved. What are needed are:

Regional Organisers - job is one of co-ordination on a regional basis (e.g. Wollongong/Hunter Valley).

Area Organisers - Co-ordinate the group organisers in your area.

Group Organisers - Become an organiser for school, church or community group. Full information and material will be sent to help plan events and recruit runners.

Individual Runners - Decide now to be a part of this great race. As you run you will be saving lives.

The 'runs' will be held between August 9 and 23.

For full information you should write to I.C.A.R.E., Private Bag 6, Bankstown 2200.

Staff Roundup

JOB ROTATION PROGRAM

As part of the University's commitment to staff training and development, a job rotation program has been implemented. Broadly, job rotation is a planned movement of staff into other positions generally at about the same level and, initially at least, for a limited period. The purpose of such a program is to develop the skills and abilities and to enhance the career opportunities of the staff of the University.

To begin with, job rotation will be confined to positions within the Administration, and perhaps at a later stage will be extended to other areas of the University, eg, the library and academic departments.

So far, five successful placements under the job rotation program have been made. These are: Neil Ballardie to Student Records and Examinations (Academic and Student Services); Bob Natalenko to Planning and Development; Lily Soh to Statistics (Planning and Development); Ian Strahan to Submissions and Research Contracts (Vice-Chancellor's Unit); David Wilson to Budgets Office (Financial Services Branch).

Participation by staff in job rotation is on a voluntary basis. As suitable vacancies arise, staff will be advised through the 'Job Rotation Circular' distributed to all departments and units. The first circular was, in fact, distributed last week, and called for nominations of interest for two further positions available under the Job Rotation Program.

Further details: Wendy Raikes, ext 3798.

CHANGES TO SALARY DEPOSITS

In the event of staff members changing the location, account number or institution into which their salary is automatically deposited, the following should be observed.

An existing account should not be cancelled and a new account opened without giving the Salaries Section adequate notice. Advice of impending changes should be forwarded to reach Salaries not later than 5 pm on the Tuesday in the week prior to a pay week, i.e. ten days prior to pay day.

Notification of such changes are to be in writing and provide full details of the bank/institution (in the case of banks the B.S.B. number), its full address, the account number, name of account and any other information which may be necessary to ensure correct identification.

Should there be any uncertainty regarding the above, the Salaries Section may be contacted for advice on ext 3930.

CALLING ALL SUPERVISORS!

One of the staff training activities for this year is the provision of a Workshop for Supervisors. It is anticipated that this two-day workshop will be held in June, and again in August, October and November. The workshop is appropriate for all levels of supervising staff. Topics to be covered include motivating staff, human relations, the management, getting results, control and accountability, communication, leadership style, and problem-solving.

The workshop was held twice during 1985, and participants found it extremely beneficial and worth the investment of two days. In fact, most participants have enrolled for subsequent follow-up workshops, so the original one must have been inspiring.

Staff who are supervising others, and who did not attend the workshop during 1985, are asked to nominate themselves for participation in one of this year's series. This can be done by writing a short note to the Staff Training Co-ordinator, giving their name, department, position and number of staff they supervise.

STAFF MEMBERS HOUSING SCHEME

The National Australia Bank has advised that the housing loan interest rate for new loans under the Staff Members Housing Scheme has increased to 15.5 per cent.

Further details from Susan Abraham, ext 3931.

ATTENDANCE OF GENERAL STAFF AT EXTERNAL TRAINING COURSES

An amount from central University funds has been set aside to support attendance of general staff members at short courses, workshops, conferences and the like, which they feel will benefit themselves and their work at the University. To ensure fair and equitable distribution of these funds, it is necessary that staff members who feel they could benefit by such courses apply by a set closing date. Once applications have been received, a committee will be formed to consider applications and allocate funds. It is anticipated that such a committee will have representation from the various groupings of general staff.

Staff members are thus invited to apply for consideration of their attendance at external training courses. Applications should be made in writing and provide full details; including name, position and department, proposed course title, dates, content, fee and estimated expenses, and how attendance at the course would enhance the staff members' skills and development. Generally, areas in which the University is providing in-house courses will not be considered. Applications should be sent to Wendy Raikes, Staff Training Co-ordinator, by May 2.

Supervisors and managers, who in discussions with their staff, have identified particular courses to their staff members, might take this opportunity to nominate such attendance on behalf of their staff. Nominations, giving details as mentioned above, should also be sent to Wendy Raikes by May 2.

Staff unsure of the external courses available in a particular area are invited to make use of the External Training Course Library. This library has brochures on various courses available, catalogued under several general subject headings. Please contact Wendy Raikes, ext 3798, if you wish to use this facility. Wendy would also be interested in sources of external training of which she may not be aware.

General staff members are also reminded that attendance at courses, workshops, conferences, etc. whether supported from central or departmental funds, must be approved by the Personnel Officer prior to attendance.

COMPUTER AWARENESS SEMINAR

This half-day seminar, tentatively scheduled for April 24, will now be held on June 2. Staff members wishing to attend the workshop should complete the nomination form available from the Staff Office (extension 3798 or 3944).

The seminar will NOT be highly technical and is aimed at staff who find themselves now using a computer or a computer terminal, or who may be using one in the future, and who do not have a background knowledge in this area.

The seminar will provide staff with a basic understanding of the computer's role in the workplace, and will look at what a computer can and can't do, how computers work, how we can use them, and the like.

The closing date for nominations is May 9. Nominations already received will be considered for the June 2 seminar, and are not required to be resubmitted.

WHY MOZART AND NOT SALIERI?

'Amadeus (why Mozart and not Salieri?)' is the presentation title for the City of Wollongong Symphony Orchestra's concert in the Town Hall on May 31. While the Peter Schaeffer screenplay is largely fictitious, there can be no doubt that Milos Foreman's award film was a winner. What a pity that only short snippets of each composer's music were used for the soundtrack. For our May 31 concert three major works will be performed in full, as well as the overture from 'Don Giovanni!'.

David Vance will be soloist in the 'big' E-Flat Piano Concerto, K.482. The program will also contain Mozart's early G-Minor Symphony, K.183, used with great effect in the film, and Salieri's 'Sinfonia Veneziana'.

Tickets are selling now at Wilson's Record Bar, 118 Crown Street (296169) for $9, concession $5, family ticket (up to four) $20.

The concert starts at 8 pm.

CHAIRMAN OR CHAIRPERSON – DOES IT REALLY MATTER?

Some years ago, on first exposure to the idea that language could be sexist, that it assigned women a secondary status to men and that certain conventional expressions should be changed to lessen the harmful effects on women, I must admit I thought – 'But compared with the real issues, like access to education and employment, it's relatively trivial'.

Unoriginal jokes about 'personholes', for example, served their purpose of trivialising this important issue.

Language reflects, transmits and reinforces our cultural values and our assumptions. The word 'nigger' reflects and reinforces a racist attitude and so it is with language which excludes or demeans women. Words like 'chairman' imply 'man normal', 'woman abnormal'. Isolated cases might not matter, but our whole language is full of such examples. 'Early man', 'the man in the street', 'settlers and their wives' – as if settlers were not women ... and so on. It would sound strange if we reversed the situation and started excluding or reducing the primary role of men in our language; eg: 'the settlers moved west with their husbands'.

There is convincing research that the generic 'he' or 'man' which is supposed to cover both men and women, produces images for both sexes, of males, not females.

The EEO Management Plan calls for a review of all university documents to remove sexist language. This is progressing. At a recent faculty meeting, lecturers requested guidelines on the preparation of lecture material to remove sexist bias. It is easy to find ourselves using sexist language because it's what we have all been used to since childhood.

To assist preparation of material, here are some guidelines issued by the Standing Committee on Spoken English for ABC broadcasters.

NON SEXIST LANGUAGE GUIDELINES FOR ABC BROADCASTERS

Produced by the Standing Committee on Spoken English

1. Avoid words which imply that a particular group is all male or all female unless it is:
eg: 'The men in government will be voting next week'.
USE: 'Government members will be voting ...'.
2. Avoid 'he' as a generic pronoun:
eg: 'The doctor may find that he has a bulk bill'.
USE: 'Doctors may find that they have to bulk bill'.
3. Avoid irrelevant gender descriptions:
eg: 'A woman reporter asked the Prime Minister..'.
USE: 'A reporter asked ...'.
4. Avoid unequal gender descriptions:
eg: 'Sam Jones and Mrs Edith Smith were on the plane ...'.
USE: 'Sam Jones and Edith Smith' or 'Mr Jones and Mrs Smith'.
5. Grant equal respect to both men and women:
eg: 'The President and his attractive blond wife ..'.
USE: 'The President and his wife ...'. (Men are more usually described by their wealth or success and women by their physical attributes).
6. Avoid sexist stereotypes and demeaning language:
eg: 'I'll get my girl to do that'.
USE: 'I'll ask my receptionist to do that'.
7. Avoid marked endings where it is demeaning:
eg: Avoid 'sculpturess', 'poetess', 'authoress'.
USE: 'sculptor', 'poet' and 'author'.
8. Avoid gender marked terms where they apply to both sexes. Use sex neutral terms instead:
eg: for 'chairman' use 'chairperson' or 'chair' or 'convenor'
for 'craftsman' use 'artisan', etc.

Letters

Sir,

Your readers might be interested in the following figures:

Recommended retail price by branch
ANU	$21.92
Institute of Technology	$18.43
University of NSW	$24.24
Macquarie University	$23.00
Sydney University	$21.29
University of Wollongong	$27.02
Co-op Average	$21.56

The figures are abstracted from a table of 33 branches of the University Co-op holding about $20 million worth of books over the past six months. As all prices are set by the publishers, it means that texts set at Wollongong tend to be more expensive than other tertiary institutions, and nearly six dollars above the average.

The average price is probably pushed up by large adoptions of relatively expensive first-year texts. However, as I have said, the price is set, or rather recommended, by the publishers. Perhaps they should be encouraged to explain their prices and pricing policies to the academic community.
