RESEARCH IMPACT STATEMENT

Research Background

Post-dramatic theatre performance often investigates social traumatic events using diverse theatrical strategies, yet for many main-stage theatre companies investigating similar topics, the three-act realist play, with swift dialogue exchanges and coherent albeit unstable subjects, is still the dominant textual and theatrical mode. This research aims to investigate and disrupt the three-act theatrical realist form, and the idea of coherent subjectivity, to reinterpret and represent the effects of trauma on human beings, and their understanding of what it means to live and die.

Research Contribution

This research uses first-person poetic sequences and fragmented dialogue to investigate trauma and near-death events. The waiting room is employed as metaphor for change and transformation. In particular, the 'internal worlds' of characters are juxtaposed with interaction between characters; possible intent contrasted with consequential action; morality set alongside immorality. Hurt

Abstract

Hurt from The Hurt Trilogy

The modern world is full of new technologies, fast cars, fast foods, fast internet speeds but does our focus on the politics of the now means we lose the opportunity to set current dilemmas against more philosophical questions about what it means to be human?

The Hurt Trilogy project queries whether our moral choices are important or whether we our lives are simply accidents being played out? Each of the plays examines whether, when faced with death—our own or the death of someone we love— ‘truths’ about our actions can be grasped? And more broadly, how shall we live and die?

Hurt, the first play of the trilogy, explores the concept of moral choice. Three people— Mel, Dominic, and Alex—await news about an injured child. In seeking to come to terms with the potential loss of a young life are Dominic, Mel, and Alex able to reveal previously hidden truths? Or, do they lay blame on each other, pushing already fractious relationships into darker territory?

Post-dramatic theatre performance often investigates social traumatic events using diverse theatrical strategies, yet for many main-stage theatre companies investigating similar topics, the three-act realist play, with swift dialogue exchanges and coherent albeit unstable subjects, is still the dominant textual and theatrical mode. This research aims to investigate and disrupt the three-act theatrical realist form, and the idea of coherent subjectivity, to reinterpret and represent the effects of trauma on human beings, and their understanding of what it means to live and die.

This research uses first-person poetic sequences and fragmented dialogue to investigate trauma and near-death events. The waiting room is employed as metaphor for change and transformation. In particular, the ‘internal worlds’ of characters are juxtaposed with interaction between characters; possible intent contrasted with consequential action; morality set alongside immorality. This text creates a study of the potential of traumatic and near-death events to disrupt patterns of speech and thought, and through its form, seeks to question the notion of coherent subjectivity. In doing so, this research aims to deepen our understanding of the fragile social world we inhabit.

Research Significance

The writing of Hurt, as part of The Hurt Trilogy, was funded by the Australia Council for the Arts, in the Established Writer's category. This play was shortlisted for the 2011 Rodney Seaborn Award. A production of Hurt directed by Sarah Goodes was presented by Parnassus Den, SBW Stables Theatre, Sydney.

mel	female	in her thirties alex	female	in her twenties dominic	male	in his thirties there is no scenery no props no furniture except perhaps a few chairs character dialogue is continuous fast-paced and overlapping names without dialogue indicate active silence between characters spaces between words indicate a silence a hesitation a pressure an expectation the length hinted at by the space these active engagements by the actors will alter with individual performers mel in shimmering light mel day pushes up no sun heaviness in the air overwhelming like too much perfume voices from other lives far away blasts spinning here solid walls furnished rooms but spinning can't breathe no breath a father missing children crying a mother me mother not mothering words circling like vultures i seek oblivion

a few hours no more but but wake to a world re-arranged i step onto the pavement everything melting and then it isn't another step

uncommitted

gravity gone the earth out of alignment no shade a single tree heat everything blurred metal cars gleaming each step a new negotiation and then i i i see her lying there face a shiny button she came into the world that way her eyes on me fixed alert in that moment a caterpillar to a butterfly a seed to a tree no one else no place else

nonexistence on a different plane alex and mel

hospital waiting room

mel you were asking

alex yes

mel about my alex i didn't meant to interr mel i heard you ask because suddenly it's like i can hear everything like a hot day on the beach when you can hear every sound alex how is she mel i was shaking so they said come out and calm down i wasn't helping alex is she mel you're the social

alex no

mel they said the social worker alex i wanted to see how she was because the blood mel the blood alex because the skin on her arm mel her arm

alex your daughter's arm mel they don't know if she'll keep

alex oh

mel this big bump too this swelling on her head pressure

mel doctors i couldn't see their faces but i could smell the worry alex are you how are you mel ah yeah i've been trying to ring my husband no answer is he checking and going oh no not her alex some people leave them switched off mel what alex or the phone is out of range mel he has children

alex driving under a bridge or in a tunnel you can miss a call or not hear the beep because of the noise mel you can't be out of range

yes mel so much noise in my head alex i can't tell you i can't express mel they said go to the waiting room wait but i can smell her and there is this shimmering i keep seeing this shimmering just before me as if everything else is blurred it just started to happen and I don't know oh oh oh do you think is this i'm not religious but then who knows do we know and is her soul

alex what

mel looking for me to say goodbye can you believe in souls and not in god is that possible

alex no no

alex i've heard this is a good hospital mel is it

alex they know stuff medical experts mel where did you hear that alex my sister said yes her no well you don't want to hear your daughter is i'm sure she is in safe hands

alex safe

mel i don't know what to

alex what

mel it's like i'm falling through the earth floating down to the centre of the earth

mel it's hot getting hotter all the time everything flaming nothing escapes i'm falling through and can't catch hold of anything because if i did i'd burn alex can i do you want water something cool to drink mel this might sound strange because the thing is i'm so so sleepy that can't be can it that in the face of danger all i want is is sleep alex a coffee mel her arm where her arm

alex what

mel you held her arm in the theatre alex the blood was it was red red so red and mel the policeman wasn't

mel not rude no very cordial but his face red as if he was angry underneath but on top alex they have a manner police some police mel could it not wait until oh are you oh no not police no no uniform or plain-clothed

alex i'm not pol mel he asked me how come your daughter is on the street i don't know why he says she's only four years old yes i know her age she was in the house playing quietly and I was resting her brother jack was with her alex this was an (accident) mel did he get confused

mel who was the mother and who was the driver alex oh yes mel he treated me like i was the driver as if it was my fault

mel hanny

mel her name

mel she is small for her age why was she was on the road i say don't go on the road i say the road is a fire-breathing dragon i say the road is a mechanical monster that gobbles and groans oh god why was she on the alex kids are unpredictable mel i'm trying to because there's spaces in our house in all houses silent spaces where things brood quietly brood and if you stand and listen because you have to be still and listen its only then you understand about the hurts those small hurts that the people of the house keep sorry i shouldn't be alex it's hard to be calm i know but mel so much troubling here abouts and it's mel and i'm with the children the most out of the two me most i work too so there is a bone weariness a mind fatigue like when you trash something in the

alex kids can mel everything is spinning spinning i can't find stillness you saw her

alex i wanted to to be sure she was okay it all happened so fast and after the statements were taken one of your neighbours offered tea to the nurse and mel nurse

alex me yes a nurse was at the scene she lives in your street chance she was home she took charge when you couldn't be found

mel

alex everyone was concerned i said i work near the hospital and on my way back i'll go in check if she is if hanny is okay and i was only going to the front desk and then they sent me to the nurses station i only came because the blood and her arm you know i i i held her skin together on the road mel oh thank you

alex no because mel you could have phoned

mel so the extra effort alex i could have phoned why didn't i phone

alex i have to go but i do hope you'll be mel when i came out of the house the way people eyes alex no they were everyone was mel judging

alex no no not judging mel once upon a time the neighbours were neighbours but my husband filled them with terror alex what sorry terror mel he's a brilliant liar alex is mel he casts spells on the neighbours weaves stories and so the monster looks like me and he says will you watch her like i'm incapable pathetic what

alex okay

mel people despise weakness don't they alex not all mel despise it but don't recognise it in themselves alex possibly mel despise it because they fear it in themselves

mel despising is a virus that spreads mouth to mouth drifts like a unseen assassin through the air alex don't you shouldn't worry mel word virus can't be seen by light microscopy and only able to multiply in living cells of the host

mel i love him of course

mel my husband

mel and we get on so well alex sorry

mel got i'm not sure if it's get on or got

mel he's been staying with friends at a friend's but i'm not to know where because i might ruin his new story as if you can discard one and start another without leaving behind a trace until recently it was all one blood us mixing as one growing strong healthy blood us four a tribe on our own a moat around us invisible shields one blood there to face darkness and futility there to face disaster and past debts there together to watch for cold moons threats from human animals always warmed by (love)

and so can i be sure about this new need for adventure because it happened once before more than once if i'm honest it muddies and then it clears but this now this how will we cope with this hanny should not have happened

mel i am too something too not something if you know what i mean it is all my because i don't handle things in a way that that that i thought i was a good mother but alex you no mustn't mel there are things he and i know about each other that nobody else can know secret things things we don't tell anyone and how can that if we are not together how can that all of those secret things about us about the two of us that are sitting there between us what happens to all that fizz fizz i don't know why fiiiiiiiizzzzzz all this is fizz spewing spewing sorry i don't even who are you

mel yes

mel where is he alex i am

mel at important times we are two far away planets he is the father of my children

alex i don't understand mel no well you couldn't alex i'm sorry i mel you look too

alex too

mel you can tell people who have been well-loved as a child do you notice that you can see it in their eyes alex can you

mel you were well-loved am i right alex ah

mel loved through your childhood

mel that's a gift your parents gave you something precious you would have glowed anyway each child does in their own way but a parent has it in their power to give something that can change futures not a tangible fixed thing no rules about how it comes packaged but it it is more precious than gold more precious than health i think yes more precious than health not life but you can get through most things if you are loved as a child that gift is what i want to give my children alex that's a mel i want us both to give them that

mel i am a i am a good mother alex of course

mel not one who works and doesn't care i have to work but i'm with the children every other minute alex i'm sure you're a very good mother mel oh no it's happening again her smell and there can can can you see that shimmering alex no where no mel there

alex no nothing

mel oh oh gone gone alex just dust just fine dust in the light mel it's all my i can only blame myself but see the front door was locked i made sure of that but jack jack is houdini i should have i wasn't thinking straight but i locked it

alex i'm sure you

mel i said stay playing with hanny jack is seven old enough to know better isn't he isn't he old enough to do what i ask at least that not outside i said i lay down when i told that to the policeman he said asleep in the day but but the way he said it ha ha gotcha

mel if we wrote everything down the world would be different

mel it's not just language it's tone or sound or the way a hand moves like now you probably think i've got a nutter here

mel she's a nutter

mel just a bit

alex not just a bit because you have reason mel so just a bit alex maybe just a bit but mel it's okay it's good to be honest you seem honest i'm rambling to stop myself from thinking of things that i don't think i can stomach sometimes i just have to keep talking because the silence is too noisy i want to cover the noisy silence

when the neighbours couldn't wake you everyone thought just for a moment that something serious had happened to you mel happened to me

alex there was confusion not judgment your neighbours were concerned for you

alex i should go would you like me to before i go get you coffee tea mel all i can worry about is hanny i spoke too much alex no i (must go)

mel if i could pray or

mel can i ask you something alex go ahead

mel you'll tell me the truth alex i'll try to mel why wouldn't you

alex no i will ask mel when i came out onto the road how did i look alex how did you

alex dazed

mel dazed

alex scared

mel i don't really i can't it's like i can't remember alex you can't remember mel a mist around events

mel no memory alex because mel please don't tell anyone

mel promise

mel hits at her temple unnaturally hard she may bang her head against a wall alex no don't don't do that shock you must be in shock mel promise myself that is what i promise alex i won't tell of course i won't tell it's shock you have no need no need of i promise not to tell is that what you want don't please don't it is just pain and worry for her she will be okay

i'll get a nurse

mel no no no no no no no no no they are all judge and jury and a pain in the arse with their efficiency and whispers about and tone oh yes the tone alex ssh ssh no one is judge and jury not at a time like this mel they blame me the nurses the way they looked at me when i came in like they knew as if someone had phoned ahead alex but they couldn't know know what think practically mel i keep wanting to shout at them all i did was have a rest

mel starts to shake alex ssh ssh you can't be it's obvious you can't be alone can i call someone mel my brother i've spoken to my brother he has jack i've left messages for dominic but where is he i only want to think of hanny but everything is swirling what if what if if only if only alex ssh we'll just think good thoughts we don't know what is going on with hanny they are finding out the doctors and nurses experts are doing all they can to make her well so we'll wait and see mel you're a kind person i can see that feel that alex i'm not no mel do you have kids alex no my sister she has four kids mel four alex it's okay hanny

alex is in good hands try not to think about what might happen not yet hold your metal mel hold my metal alex hold your metal my sister says that all the time her expression mel are you close alex not really kind of could be closer mel i had a sister

alex you don't anymore mel i never thought someone could die from asthma alex she died that's oh that's not good you were close mel i could tell her anything and everything she didn't judge never why are you looking at me that way alex no not at you not i was thinking how easily things get messed up and confused and in a moment everything slips and it's like you are in another world you've lost your sister and now this mel when i stepped onto the road i stopped breathing and i only breathed when i saw she was alive

mel i couldn't ask the police i was ashamed to ask about

alex what

mel you saw

alex i had just been to the corner shop mel the paramedics said she was calling for me alex she called for you mel i could hear her in my dream i remember now hearing her call me alex when i saw her there lying on the road she looked as if she was resting and that was and then she started talking mum she said i want to go inside to mum we ran to her another woman with me your neighbour shelley shelley says oh she's talking that's a good sign shelley spoke to jack your son jack was just standing there still he was so still shelley ran to get you pete with me he called the ambulance all happening so fast i knelt on the road next to hanny i saw she had a terrible cut on her leg but she looked fine apart from that then she moved she was trying to get up and i saw her arm the car had bumped her along i took hold of her arm and oh my god and i had to pull the skin from each side across the bone pinch it together to stop the bleeding

mel thank you

alex no no just to stop the bleeding no

alex a car stopped and this man and woman got out the man was he had some medical knowledge he wanted to stay and the woman wanted him to go i had this sense that they were they frightened of something police i think statements he spoke with an accent french or but they stayed and this man gestured for someone to get a blanket and there were more people around and another of your neighbours six foot very tall man he ran and came back with a blanket and a pillow shelly came back came back and that was terrible because she thought you had she couldn't wake you she thought something was wrong because the bedroom door was locked and she had banged on it mel it jams

alex she banged on the door mel with the weather hot and cold the timber swells jams alex she was desperate because jack he thought you were you were dead mel no no he why

alex we were waiting for the ambulance it wasn't a long time but it seemed forever shelly and some other women they climbed the side fence to see through the bedroom window to see if you were all right you were lying on the bed at first shelly said they couldn't see you breathing then you breathed shelly called out she's alive and it was passed on back to the road she's alive she's alive shelly knocked and knocked on the window yelling out trying to wake you but they couldn't a firetruck arrived and stopped all the traffic no cars going either way there were more people that came and stood around i was holding hanny her arm i was pinching her skin together the man with the medical knowledge was checking her body for anything broken jack was not crying he said mum took pills mel no no pills oh just a sleeping pill a stupid health food shop sleeping pill alex the man said no bones broken but don't move till the ambulance gets here and that's when the nurse came she walked through the crowd because now there was quite a crowd and she called out the nurse called out i'm a nurse and everyone parted for her she's a big woman mel i don't know any nurse alex jeanine she needed help to get down on her knees but it was like she had so much strength jeanine it was like she needed her weight like it was armour i had been trembling but i felt now that jeanine was there that it would all be all right the man stood he said no broken bones and he left jeanine called for a bandage we hadn't done that because i don't know why in the panic no one thought and she said to hanny don't move darling don't move someone ran for a bandage jeanine said pinch that skin tighter if you can people i heard them talking about you yes i remember but they were only concerned that you were okay someone another man said he'd break the door down mel i don't remember the door only someone shaking me alex jeanine bandaged hanny's arm hanny didn't flinch jeanine has that wonderful confidence that says to everyone oh yes wounds can heal this will all mend language yes you are right because now i think about it so much was just in the tone of how she said whatever she said she exuded confidence and that confidence in a time when everyone was in need of it that was something really something she told me to keep talking to hanny i told hanny a story the only story i could remember of the mouse who drank too much mel the driver alex and drinking

alex oh they did a breathalyser mel because you are only meant to alex when the police got there go slow they did a breathalyser they

alex there was no speeding mel and drink drivers from the pub alex it was an acc

alex and i

mel i don't know jeanine alex even more people gathered around you'd think that would be awful all these people but it wasn't not awful it was protective like they were willing hanny to be okay people kept murmuring she'll be okay she'll be okay just this murmuring i've never experienced anything like it like they were chanting her to wellness they wanted only for her to be well

mel oh

alex i don't think people are deep down they're not selfish not in a crisis the ambulance arrived and someone had your door was jammed and they'd pushed it open and they were bringing you out mel people do spit spit venom in a crisis whenever alex i think no everyone was focused on hanny i wouldn't have thought this before i've never felt this sense of i can't think of the word wonderful like a chorus mel hanny is always she is sunny sunshine like a little drifty bit of something in the air that is her oh oh oh

mel i can smell her again as if she was here but i can't see there's no shimmering alex don't this is you can't dream this or not dream this is you can only wait and see you can't predict what will happen mel overwhelming

mel sorry

alex and

mel yesterday i went to the shop it was raining and grey and and as i came back the rain stopped for a few seconds the clouds parted this brilliant sun shone through lit up the street so that everything gleamed there were pools of water on the road the light hit the pools and they shone orange and red and yellow this glimmering light and then a cloud covered the sun it was dark again grey then greyer in minutes it was night rain began to fall it had only been a few seconds of this this wondrous light when i came inside the news was full of utter horror and it just felt like we we are so deeply fucked up completely fucked up so that all a person has is is family but when that gets messed up completely messed up then it's like there's

mel like there are no alex pools of light mel no pools of light

mel i think a hot drink would be alex yes coffee real coffee mel coffee

alex real coffee do they have that in hospitals i doubt it i'll get it and don't think about don't worry just mel (smiles) breathe enter dominic

she goes to him he puts his arms around her dom i went straight up there they said you were here

they want you to fill out some forms

dom yes

dom

mel

i

i was the driver

alex a bold strip of light we both screamed howled shock a child a child hair like spraying water and for a second her face then gone brakes screeching out on the road ran to the front no body oh my god i've run over run over oh my god we scramble to the back of the car the exhaust no body oh oh oh oh look under the car no no like a riddle where is she pete screaming here here here her arm is under the wheel back it up back it the fuck up and i jump in back it up out again and she is on the road lying there so so quietly so so sweetly animal sounds from my mouth pull yourself together alex pull your shit together this is not a time for not the time i knelt down next to hanny road hot worried about that but the man said don't move her pete rang an ambulance then he rang dominic then he rang the police pete couldn't he faints when he sees blood the client was with us he was in shock standing to the side jack came up to me like a lost lamb stood there not a word for ages other people came quickly helping and i felt because could i have done was i doing everything i could (when driving) my lungs felt burnt i was on the road and holding her skin skin like a piece of cling wrap so fine holding pinching it together and watching her hanny's face and feeling all the people around me murmuring it was like going deeper and deeper into a place beyond beyond words who would believe that out of something so terrible there could also be this this other something

alex and dominic

dom she ran onto the—alex i was driving twenty-five k's no more

alex i really

dom this is so so

alex she was hidden by the cars i was driving slowly because i'd just pulled out from the curb in front of the corner shop pete was still strapping himself in and she ran out from behind a car straight onto the road dom the policeman yes he said yes that is what he said i know alex i couldn't nothing i could i want you to know that witnesses confirmed

alex she didn't look just ran straight out such a tiny thing dom my little yes they both stare into the distance dom they were meant to be at a party

dom if she just for once did what she said she was doing

dom why were they on the road alex it was a blind spot i didn't couldn't see there was a car parked on the left blocking the view of the pavement any view and then suddenly there was in front of me this no time to stop dom they're not allowed on the road they know that jack knows that

dom i've told mel never to leave them alone like that she can call me anytime alex i'd just pulled out saw jack on the road dom on the road

alex he was standing in the middle of the road i think he was calling to hanny mel was upset when she came out from the house she shouted at jack and i think he is frightened he'll get into trouble dom he would be because he shouldn't be on the road alex but kids on the road don't please don't blame him i slowed down even more watching to see what he would do

alex i was watching jack cars coming the other way i was driving dom yes i know you drive the other day when you yes i know how you drive alex so then and then she must have been down on the curb because i didn't see her on the footpath or because she was so small i don't know a blind spot and then an i just wanted no one could reach you and mel seemed pete and i were in a taxi going back to close up the office not to work who could work i said drop me off and i'll check how she is dom they keep saying wait wait alex her arm dom it's not her arm i'm worried

dom her life

alex her life

dom she's my

the policeman said last month a boy was knocked down right in front of the station he looked fine no visible marks two days later the boy was dead alex they think

are you (okay)

alex good dom thank you

alex no god no i feel

i should go

alex she wanted coffee mel i said i'd get dom you talked to her why were you alex she heard me asking at the desk she started talking and she she needed someone to talk to dom fuck

dom i don't this is very very fucked up alex it is i know very very fucked up dom how did this alex i don't fuck i don't know fuck fuck fuck dom don't you

dom you mustn't not your fault she is the mother and meant to be fuck fuck meant to be watching guarding

i feel

alex the neighbours all your neighbours so nice one woman came up and she said as if she knew how i was she said i saw her run out straight out it was chance chance so you're not this is an accident this you mustn't worry but but i do i do dom i'm going ahead with it you can set it all in motion alex don't don't think about that now alex i don't know but when you described her to me the other dom what alex and it is hard with two young kids at that age they're so dom oh she's good mel is even at a time like this she is so good at getting people to see things her way alex it's between you two it's just i can empath dom what did she say exactly alex what I didn't no it don't trust anything she says is this situation and seeing her so

dom what alex i mean maybe everyone in a relationship it gets warped doesn't it dom why didn't she call me alex she said she did dom pete did why not her alex she said she did call dominic checks his mobile dom no nothing alex are you sure dom she's always been a storyteller
alex oh
dom sorry sorry alex no dom to i i was the driver fuck alex fuck dom shit

dom why is this happening alex i want to die i never i mean i really want to die god i hope hanny is

alex we were taking a client to see a house nearby he didn't like it and i said let's just go and look at the outside of yours pete was with me but it was so off the cuff why today pete was going to drive and then i said i would but a different driver a few more seconds at the shop dom yes fuck yes

alex it's so random

i just want hanny to be (okay)

dom i shouldn't be so volatile

dom we're all worried

dom but i have to think of the kids don't i that would be the responsible thing irresponsible not to considering

alex i feel like it's wrong for me to be here and this is all so complex and strange dom did she say something to you

dom what did you talk about alex nothing just how dom did she say she was sleeping or what did she say alex she said resting dom because i can never trust her with them again pills she takes pills alex she didn't not specifically say about she said health shop sleeping pills

alex health shop dom mel hates health food shops alex she hates does anyone hate health food shops dom hates the smell of them alex don't think about any of this now it's not the time dom ever since jack was born all she has said day in day out is i'm tired it's her mantra my mother had five kids and i've never once heard her say i'm tired never once has she blamed her kids for how her life has been she's not perfect but her kids are everything whereas mel

alex i tried to tell her i was

alex it's natural she should blame me i didn't mean to shock her that way dom she'll be okay don't worry about mel

dom i'll call you tomorrow alex tomorrow

dom tomorrow

alex don't you think it will be that will be too soon dom no i don't no alex i know you've said you can go ahead without her but

dom it's in my name
i had it before we were even together alex but you want to get her a place right dom we both need a home for the kids i'll set her up

alex so why not tell her dom she'll fight it i haven't the energy she'll say it's their home and with all the disruption she'll use this this will be perfect for her to delay and delay and cut off all possibility of another way we'll be grounded never able to take off and she and i we'll keep going on with things the way they are but that's not a way for us to live alex i have to think this way i don't like thinking this way but i have to this is not me i'm trying to sort out what is best for the kids i need to act fast you don't know me! she's a master at manipulation don't try and because the other day when we had coffee you were so that was sweet but don't now try and sway me because it's hard enough for me to stay firm as it is alex okay yes i'm sorry i shouldn't get involved i've got to this is such a terrible dom if i leave my kids with her she'll kill them alex you don't mean dom it keeps going through my alex really i mean really dom she's unstable

alex do you really think no she's not that no dom no surely not dom she says to me you can't visit on saturday because and there is some reason okay i say thursday she says you can't take them thursday because and there is always a reason and then she complains i don't take them enough alex you need to set up regular days non negotiable dom she has a paranoid drugged-filled vision of the world

dom i didn't tell everything the other day not her history she has a history fact today she wasn't having a rest fact today she popped too many pills fact today she locked her door so her children our children couldn't get to her alex she is adamant jammed dom the police said it was locked this cop was pissed off pissed off with seeing kids hurt fourth accident

fourth this month and it's parents letting kids alex but no-one not on purpose dom mel says don't go out and play on the road but he is a kid a boy he thinks up all sorts of if its not sword fights with sticks its a play or some game his mind is active not to be cooped up in a room alex maybe this was a dark dom she just wants to live in lala land alex i see dom i see

alex please don't this is a mess and maybe she is something mad or something but don't you think that requires because she is a human being dom i'm not convinced of that alex she seemed to have a great deal of love for her hanny for her children dom but she doesn't know how to look after them alex and then she lost her sister dom she told you what dominic laughs

dom she lost her sister fifteen years ago

dom i lost my dad five years ago do i use that to explain everything that goes wrong in my life and she didn't have a sad childhood by the way her parents loved her

alex there's a secret some secret between you in public one thing in private

dom no

alex she didn't tell me she dom that's a tactic alex she wasn't lucid enough to be planning tactics

alex she didn't even know who i was dom she's a demon

alex i can't believe she can't be that she's just a woman dom you're putty in her hands alex you think i don't know people i know people dom maybe fuck her sister alex when you first said about the house and selling it and how she is a (monster) i thought yes fair enough and then then today at first i thought this woman is mad self-indulgent and then i thought no lonely she's lonely she needs help but then i thought no she's just just different because she sees things differently she doesn't quite fit we don't seem to allow that the world doesn't allow difference and then sometimes she seemed helpless that position that helpless position is the worst thing that can happen to someone to be and losing your confidence that happens to women when they have kids dom where did all this come from alex no it's my sister had after her first there was this depression and you have to be in that position to really understand dom no one made mel helpless i didn't make her be that way alex maybe she is unable dom not unable unwilling no excuses

alex to be what she wants be and she's trying

dom okay

alex you understand the situation it's true i don't if she can't look after them and if she is all these things you say because you are the one that has lived it so you would know i just feel as anyone would that this is a terrible day and maybe no decisions should be made today or tomorrow or for some time that's all i've been trying to say and if anyone should be to blame then

alex and and i think you should tell her dom let me handle this alex it may not be but the other day when we talked we talked and there was you were very open dom you were so it was so easy to talk to you and you're quite wise they smile

dom for someone so alex oh my don't say it

alex for someone so young dom you are young alex not that young younger than you

alex we shifted somewhere else that day

alex so i feel i need to say that about the house just that i think you should when you know how hanny is and this is sorted then i think it would be okay to tell her what your plans are dom alex

i can't

alex yes

alex but dom not until i've sold the house

dom if i tell her who knows what it could set off in her

dom i'm serious

alex really

dom this is for jack and hanny's sake

dom their safety

dom do you see

alex i yes see dom go home

dom i'll call you

5 dominic

in pulsing light dom it was a day of heat after days of summer storms black bruise clouds and water drops big and hot splashing on the pavement and then the heat searing down drying the rained on earth the night before i'd lay on the balcony staring up at the moon that limped through the sky had turned everything off my mobile my computer pulled out the land line had the ocean in my ear forgetting the argument the banality of it souring my soul i wanted to be cleansed because i was done done with talk i wanted to dream again we are born into this world not even able to crawl and yet we can dream we are our dreams

all i ask is for the space to dream and is laughing such a bad thing

dom and mel

dom staring out at mel mm dom pitch black mel there's this light see dom how long more mel she's going to be fine the nurse

mel when she comes out they'll take her to recovery and the surgeon will dom where is the (surgeon)

dom why is it taking so long mel nothing we can dom what makes you so calm mel stop

dom nurse give you drugs mel i said stop dom i don't get it mel hanny is going to be okay dom you don't know that mel the nurse said dom is the nurse in theatre with her mel no but dom the nurse is not the nurse is not the one who is performing the operation mel she wouldn't say if she didn't have some idea dom yes to keep you calm

mel no

dom just like you're saying it to keep me calm mel that's not dom but being calm doesn't mean things aren't going on you should have learnt that lesson by now being calm can mean you don't see the danger coming your way mel i

mel i needed to rest dom rest

mel rest

dom a rest calms me mel why can't i say you should have been there so i could rest dom spare me mel you should have been home looking after your dom i said i'd take them to the party but you said no as usual no no no the word for you is no

dom and then you didn't go mel i was

dom tired (laughs) i'm the one working my butt off to pay the mel i work dom you call it work mel i earn and i do the looking dom you don't do mel most dom not all mel i didn't say all i said most what do you want me to say dom if you'd asked me to come over i would have you wanted to punish me mel not punish

mel no

dom see where that attitude got you got hanny mel i think you've been punishing me for so long you've been punishing me dom for

mel for dom no answer

mel when you said you wanted to go to the party i thought we could both go

dom what

mel i thought that's what you were suggesting

mel so when i realised it wasn't you didn't i said no i'll go but then dom then mel you think you're meant to have some wonderful life every day it has to be that way but life's not like that it can't be and you blame me dom only you are depressed all the time so that doesn't mel you have unrealistic expect dom i just want to be happy mel we all want dom a crime to want to be some of us make an effort smile mel i smile dom when there are people around mel not just when dom just us

mel just us dom then you're sullen

then you're mean dom when you walk around looking like someone has just died mel a family is close and tender dom i try tender you push me away mel not early in the morning when the kids are your timing is always based around you your needs what dom you want everything clean and running to schedule dom but then it's a joke because there's no order the place is a pigsty mel order you try order with things need to be done dom no one is happy dom i'm not going to win mel it's not about winning dom you have to have the last word mel you are just not used to not having the last word so you miss dom see see

mel this is stupid

mel why are we dom stops the worry

mel i wish

mel i wish this hadn't happened

mel if she doesn't have the use of her arm that's not the worst thing as long as she's dom oh god which arm i don't know which left or right

mel she's alive dom yes yes

she'll have to do one arm things like one arm skiing

mel not the worst

dom what's out there

mel night dom night

mel and a single light dom mm

mel less noise at night less confusion just the buzz of the hospital mending people healing people

mel the driver dom gone mel why did she come dom the police said it was unwise mel police dom until the facts are known mel facts dom of the case mel we're a case dom everything needs to be investigated mel what everything
mel she said didn't she told you when you two were
dom what mel nothing dom no what okay don't speak mel she was watching jack on the road

dom yes
mel you said she said

mel so maybe

mel have you thought that dom thought mel maybe she wasn't watching in front of her dom when you do that i always feel like a balloon with the air let out

dom like you are going to say something that means something and then you don't mel i'm just saying dom the police said witnesses saw no chance because hanny ran straight out

dom it's always someone else's fault

dom why were they on the road mel mel okay

dom can't blame the driver mel hanny is going to be okay dom our daughter is going to be okay i trust the nurse

let's leave off blaming each other dom why did you wait so long to call me mel your mobile was off dom no message

mel it was

dom don't trust me

he gives her his mobile

mel i don't know i rang i did i rang and left a dom okay mel you rang mel you could have deleted it dom why would i do that mel to send me mad

dom send

dom it just keeps coming back to me how quickly how long will she mel i don't know

dom so we wait

how have things how is it on your own

mel are you going to tell me where you've been staying or is it still a secret dom at max's mel i rang max i rang your mother dom there till he gets back from japan mel so your mother knew

mel you told your mother but not dom you can get me on the phone when you need to mel no i dom yes you

mel you are a

mel mystery

dom what

mel mystery to me now dom i think i should take jack tonight

dom one of us needs to be with him mel i'll be dom i want to be mel it'll be better if it's not a strange place dom okay we'll both go back to the house

dom i need to be there for mel you can't just dom this is not about us mel you can't just come and go without you can't just decide dom let's not argue mel let's not dom you need me there mel see this is the problem i have no real say in anything and do you not remember yelling at me like i was the devil incarnate dom because you're paranoid mel you are always (saying) no no i'm not para i worry about the kids dom i'm happy for us to both stay at the house that or jack with me mel why are you being like this now here dom you said you need help i'll help i'll take jack move back in with mum she can look after him when i'm at work or when i need to come to the hospital to see hanny mel no i don't want your mother you know what she is like with me no

dom i offer solutions you don't like them mel no reasonable solutions dom you use the kids against me

dom you do mel do i

mel i don't mean to it's just they are with me more dom you keep saying it's too much but then you don't like me taking them mel i like you taking them i hate you feeding them shit and them coming home all overtired and grumpy and high on sugar dom and when we go to my mother's you are like mel because she tells them things about me she why can't she tell them children's stories or something but they come home with stories about me dom and they are always hungry you don't feed them enough mel i give them vegetables proper food not chips and ice-cream dom they tell me they're hungry mel come on dom and it's not a crime to have ice-cream mel you always undermine me with them

mel i tell them not to do something you tell them it's okay to do it you can't do that dom you're not reasonable they need a little fun mel that's why they don't do what i say my mother used to lock us in a room when we were kids

dom what

mel the doctor ordered her to do it told her lock the door and go have a rest dom lock you in mel we were fine we played dom but you locked yourself in mel can't you see the difference mel no i just they were playing dom we can't risk rests pills mel i don't take those any more dom maybe not all the time but now and then you pop one or two so in your mind it doesn't even count that's what you tell yourself mel just a health shop herb natural dom opium is natural mel that's all

mel that's it

mel that's true

mel this is awful

dom fucked

mel she's in danger and we keep fighting

mel let's just not not

mel remember when we took the kids bushwalking dom huh

mel it was like they were bursting out of their own skins they had somewhere for their energy to go dom so we go for more bushwalks and that (solves it all) mel and we'd always come onto the heathland and the wind would hit us but it was so it always smelt clean or it didn't smell of ash and smut and petrol fumes that's what we need for hanny she's tiny like my sister and she coughs all the time and we need to go more often to places with clean dom we

echidnas can't see how they sniff for food instead and how they freeze up and stay still whenever they get frightened hoping no one will notice them i feel like there is this one world here and now but close by it's like there is another there's an invisible screen somewhere and if we pull it apart then we can step into this other world where all of this didn't happen

do you get what i

mel i'm not mad and i love you

dom maybe there is somewhere we can

dom find a place with clean air mel frightened mel we

dom we could sell up and buy further out mel you said we dom the kids need a place to run around we need

dom yes because mel because dom we're on a path and our next step decides it all

dom frightened

mel i've stopped living stopped breathing stopped seeing stopped remembering stopped understanding stopped no haven't stopped loving

dom you haven't answered

dom do i move back in or take jack with me until hanny comes home you choose

dom when hanny

mel can we be honest with each other really honest dom we can think about clean air mel are you saying alex comes in with two coffees alex sorry it took so long i'm going now i was before but then i walked past the italian restaurant and i'd promised you coffee and so i went to get it and i'll put it here and i'll be yes have you heard something or is it just me being here

mel yes we we have

alex what

mel the nurse says that it's all going well that hanny is going to be well alex that is i am so relieved that is mel before

i'm sorry

alex oh no no don't be mel and we're thinking dom and i we might move out somewhere to the country and maybe

mel i can see it on your face alex nothing

mel tell me

alex i have to go but i hope all goes well for hanny mel what is it

mel dom dom how dom

alex i don't think i can dom this is a mess but it has to come into the open mel what open

alex dom

dom you should leave alex alex i think leave now mel what do you

alex it's not fair

dom not for you to mel what not involved

alex i am involved dom now is not the never is this never is there a time for this but mel what you both of you

dom no

alex not what you

dom no

alex i meant about the house mel how you let me talk tell you all dom tell you all what alex i was listening a listener mel what were you doing in our street alex i was spying you were spying dom don't go getting hysterical mel hysterical this is how people a woman this woman reacts when she finds out

dom the police are more interested in you

dom than alex and alex it's not there is no alex and mel what dom your negligence

alex this won't help the dom if we are looking to blame mel you told him alex no i didn't say mel because sometimes it's just over-tired a blanking alex i didn't say dom say what

dom say unfit or unable or mel both of you

mel honest

dom can you say honestly

dom mel i want the kids safe

alex no

dom what

mel why were you

alex tell her dom

dom you took too many pills and you were going to leave them on their own and who knows what could have happened you locked your door and left our children unattended what did you take mel for fuck's sake admit it how many what exactly mel (to alex) you you you alex i didn't tell because i didn't know you didn't tell me you were vague so what could i dom it's not going to look good when i tell them about what happened before about the time before about all the nervous or whatever you want to call it after jessie mel no don't say her name don't use her name for dom i will say it i will use it mel not jessie please i can't not today mel lashes out at dom mel you don't get to bring her back whenever you want to use it against dom i'm not bringing her back nothing can bring her back dom pushes back they struggle it's physical dom but i've had enough of this this nonsense mel your your alex help can someone help alex tries to stop them fighting alex no not this not this mel hits out at alex dom attempts to stop her they all get off balance unseemly

alex your daughter is stop stop this

eye each other

dom walks a little way away walks back bends over and goes to scream doesn't

all we hear is breathing for some time dom i want to i'm going to sell the house

dom we need to separate properly mel we are separ

dom sell the house divide assets mel why were you in our street alex i am going now alex starts to leave mel if we're being honest alex stops alex pete my business partner pete and i were taking a client to look at a house that we have up for sale and then we decided to show him the outside of your place i wanted him to see the lake view mel you're a alex real estate

mel real estate

alex we walked around the front to the foreshore took in the view and the client said yes to next week to coming to a viewing next week and then we all got in the car this is an awful situation this is a terrible situation and given the circumstances i think pete will agree with me we should not be involved with selling your house and if you both decide to sell some other agent will gladly

dom house not home

dom not anymore

mel not since you left dom before that mel the children's our children's home dom (to alex) see see mel the family home dom it's a mortuary mel we all feel safe there dom but you are not all safe there

if we're being honest

alex goes to leave mel it's me he blames but i bet i bet

mel you've borrowed against it dom over that is way over

dom don't twist

dom grab at mel you've lost money again dom not why i'm selling mel did he tell you about that about what he does mr investor mr boom and bust alex i wouldn't that doesn't concern mel put money actually my money into schemes and lose it all lose it all and then how dare you then say your house we our home did he tell you about what

alex what

mel what did he tell you who are you who the fuck are you alex i'm someone who is good at my job i knew my client would love your house yours would be the one he'd want so i took him to see the outside i explained that the house wasn't even on the market yet he'd be the first in i explained that the owner wanted a quick sale i'd seen the house i'd seen it some weeks back i'd been taking dom to see different properties he'd briefed me he was separating from his wife he was looking to buy two places a suburb away from each other both needed rooms for the kids and a garden to play in both needed lots of light and a good kitchen i thought he

wife

i had found a couple of places that interested him but i could tell i hadn't found the place every client dreams their future and my job is to understand what that dream is and help make it happen

want dom wanted me to do a valuation of his place of your place i went there one wednesday saw the photos on the wall i saw the kids bedrooms i saw the comfortable solidness of it all the curtains thick and protective i saw the colours deep reds and browns when we went in the first thing he did was open all the windows pull back all the curtains all the doors were shut but he opened them all up after that i knew what to look for the next week i took him to see a place a street back from the ocean but from the deck you could see the horizon windows everywhere the house was a little ramshackle but big and open and easy to renovate dom was ecstatic after we went for coffee that's when he told me about what had happened between you two you were a character in a story to me he told me how your first child how jessie had died and after how you had fallen ill and they gave you these pills that made you numb numb to everything but you and dom went on and had another baby and then later another and for a while you were a tribe a family but dom said you were never happy something was always wrong that's it that's what he told me none of us are perfect we are all these opposite energies we all search for for pools of light but we can't ever be sure we'll find them

alex leaves

mel you took her into our home dom i wanted to sell and then set you up i wasn't going to not set you up mel my say dom i didn't want to argue mel not the

mel completely not the point

mel i feel like my all those private

dom i mel like i'm naked in front of

dom yes

mel no choice and naked

mel in front of of her

mel and you told her about dom it just happened

dom not planned it was i didn't mean to tell her but it just came out

mel and before when you said to me before about clean air dom sometimes i think we can go back and find what we had

sometimes i want to go find what we had and reignite it but then then i realise no it's all ash nothing left to reignite mel i didn't think we were here yet separation didn't mean the end just

mel yes

mel

dom i'll help you find your place mel i'll find my own place

dom yes

mel yes

dom so what do we do now mel hanny is our priority

mel we must think only of dom hanny

mel and later

dom our shit

dom so mel we wait to hear how she is dom i want the kids safe mel they are safe dom today was not safe

mel hanny was playing she was telling a story a mummy and daddy story to her teddy bear and jack was lying there listening hanny was being me will you go to bed will you go to bed children and the children went to bed then mummy was saying come on daddy and daddy was saying in an angry voice hanny was doing this angry voice of daddy saying i hate you i hate this i hate everything about this family and she kept repeating it i hate you i hate this and i just i got overwhelmed i couldn't go to the party i said jack please look after hanny and i went into the bedroom and i took it was one herb pill two maybe and i cried so hard and so long and so deep and i didn't want them to come in and see me in that state so i locked the door my face was all blown up and red and my eyes like puffy pins i fell asleep just exhausted just overwhelmed it just it happened i wasn't thinking straight if we have our home then it's still our home but if that goes dom i'm it's not home

mel come early in the morning if you want to drop jack at school have breakfast with us if you want but leave the night routine the same have dinner with us too but you can't stay i'm sorry but no and leave it like that until hanny is well

mel and then we sell dom i didn't mean this to mel please done done later we can the nurse said the surgeon would come to us as soon as the operation they would take hanny to recovery and the surgeon would come to see us dom shortly

mel i don't know why it is taking so dom maybe hanny is already in recovery

mel yes

dom we could sit by her bed mel we should ask

dom yes

they go to leave but stop

you were so pleased she looked like you

mel the way they look at the world how new everything is for them

dom yes

mel living that newness that's what you want isn't it that way of seeing dom childish

mel innocence freshness newness not bearing the weight of other thoughts

mel we can never go back and try again it's gone dom i guess mel this is it's so clear this is dom yes sorry mel i didn't see it coming i mean you were still wanting me and dom no well i'm good at mel hiding dom yes hiding

mel we both i guess

mel we are both good at that mel we need to do something dom what something mel i feel like we have to dom to mel decide what our something is

dom maybe we don't have to decide mel i feel like we do dom we should go to her mel i need to know about jack and hanny

mel i mean we are together whenever it's to do for them we still work together not one parent battling the other not undermining because it changes it for them it changes everything they do in life how they see i want us to give them to offer them a way of seeing that is clear dom we don't have to need to decide more than

mel but we we both agree

mel yes

dom it's not much mel it's a lot actually dom is it

they exit

the end
