

COOK'S ATTEMPTED LANDING:

W. D. Forsyth in his book "Captain Cook's Australian Landfalls" says "Cook, Banks, Dr. Solander and four oarsmen had to be content to sit in their yawl outside the surf gazing at four 'exceedingly black' aborigines who sat upon the rocks watching them".

The approximate spot was marked by Bulli Rotary Club with granite inscribed tablet on the Bi-centenary afternoon of the day that happened, now 201 years ago!
