Progressive companies and outstanding students recognised

At a ceremony held recently the University paid tribute to 25 organisations that had the foresight to invest in young Australians with outstanding talent.

These companies have provided scholarships under the Co-operative Education Scholarship scheme to some of the country's top students to enable them to undertake degree programs.

The Co-operative Education Scholarship Program was developed during 1990 to provide for the first intake of scholarship holders in 1991.

The aim of the program was to strengthen and extend working relationships between the University and industry (private and public sector) and in the process to provide sponsored scholarships ($9300 per annum) and opportunities for students to have relevant work experience with different organisations.

Brief News

In accordance with the University's procedures for reviewing academic units, the Vice-Chancellor has initiated a review of the Department of Biology following the resignation of the Head of the Department, Professor Helen Garnett.

It is anticipated that the review will take place in June or July this year. The review will be a 'full review' as defined in the procedures.

Submissions to the review panel are invited from the academic community. Submissions, which will be treated as in confidence, should be forwarded to Peter Wood, Manager Academic Services, and should reach him no later than 30 April 1992.

A copy of the University's review procedures can be obtained from the Administration File Server. Refer to Section M of the Management Handbook which is located in the 'Public Information' folder on the Server.

Enquiries in relation to this matter should be addressed to Peter Wood (ext. 3943).

It was reported last week in Campus News that Dr Stephen Pyne had been awarded a Von Humboldt Research Fellowship.

In fact, Dr Pyne and Dr William Price from the Department of Chemistry, have both been awarded Alexander von Humboldt Research Fellowships for 1992. Dr Price will carry out work investigating the transport properties of alkane-alcohol mixtures under pressure. This will be in collaboration with Professor HD Ludemann at the University of Regensburg.

Dr Pyne will conduct research on new methods for the asymmetric syn-

Leanne Robinson and Rob MacGregor

Two members of the University staff have begun to make a name for themselves in the world of music.

Leanne Robinson, secretary at Weerona College, and Rob MacGregor, senior lecturer in the Department of Business Systems, are half of the band Finn Castle Mill who have recently launched their second album, entitled Listen Listen.

The band has played for audiences of 4000 - 5000 in NSW and Victoria and have secured a 12-concert tour of Scandinavia, Scotland and Ireland.

Listen Listen, available on tape and CD, is the culmination of 12 months' hard work and the band members are delighted to find that their intricate arrangements of both instrumental and vocal harmonies have caught the ear of distributors in Europe.

Anyone interested in hearing the band in concert or purchasing a copy of the new album should contact either Leanne (ext. 3167) or Rob (ext. 3758).

thesis of chiral biologically active molecules at the University of Marburg.

Humboldt Research Fellowships are awarded to scholars of all disciplines from any country to facilitate high quality collaborative research at German institutions.

The fellowships are very competitive with only approximately 500 awards offered annually.

Graduates group book sale

The Friends of the University Graduates Group will hold the next monthly book sale on 28-29 March at their Campus east shop (opposite the Science Centre) from 1-5pm.

Mixed textbooks, fiction, music, young readers' books and magazines will be available.

Donations of material are also invited. All proceeds go towards campus projects. Enquiries to (042) 29 1951 or (042) 62 1536 at any time or to the Friends Office (042) 21 3110 on weekdays.

Book-inspired photo show

Michael Porter, an independent Sydney photographer, is presenting a photographic exhibition called 'Adam's Descent' in the Long Gallery, School of Creative Arts.

The work is an artistic response to a book recently published by one of this University's academics, Director of the Centre for Research Policy, Professor Stephen Hill.

Porter said, 'In 1989 I read The Tragedy of Technology by Stephen Hill. 'I found in this book a new way of perceiving the culture in which we live.'

VC award for outstanding general staff members

A new award system has been introduced to reward outstanding service to the University by members of the general staff.

The award parallels in many ways, the Vice-Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching, as both have been introduced to encourage and reward outstanding or exceptional work performance.

The recipients will have the option of receiving the reward in the form of an amount of money, $1000 (tax free), or attendance at courses or conferences of their own choice, to the value of $1000.

Consideration may also be given to utilising the award to pay for the provision of equipment, eg: a personal computer for either work or home use.

All recipients will also receive an inscribed certificate, these certificates will be awarded to the employee on University Day each year.

Up to six awards will be available annually.

Awards will only be issued for nominations which demonstrate exceptional and outstanding achievements. Any or all awards need not be given in any one year.

A nomination may be made by any three people.

Only one of the nominators may be from the nominee's own Department/Branch/School/Division/Centre.

No more than one nominator may be an external client (with a demonstrated affiliation with the University).

Self-nominations will not be accepted.

Nominations should reach Department or Unit Heads by 3 April 1992.

All members of the staff covered by the General Staff Salaries and Conditions Awards will be eligible. Individual and groups are eligible to receive the award.

A group may consist of a work team or unit, who have worked together to implement or achieve the success.

The amount of the reward will be divided between the members of the group. As a guideline, nominated units would not normally exceed six members.

The award will be for a single outstanding success in the workplace. It will not reward satisfactory or good performance only.

The nomination will meet one or more of the following criteria:

- An outstanding and exceptional achievement or success, with a demonstrated value,
- Outstanding service to clients of the Branch/Department/University, with a definable benefit to the clients,
- An outstanding or novel initiative which has been implemented, and has a demonstrated value,
- Changes or improvements to work practices of a definable benefit to the Branch/Department/University

For information on the decision making process and procedural matters please refer to the information brochure available from Personnel Services Branch or Faculty offices.

Alternatively you can contact Ann Kiceluk, Personnel Officer General Staff, on ext.4284.

Maureen's a new development officer

Maureen Bell has been appointed General Staff Development Officer.

She was previously with the NSW Department of School Education in Sydney as a Senior Education Officer (Professional Development) in the Human Resource Development Directorate.

Her responsibilities included the co-ordination of staff development programs in a wide variety of areas including responding to child sexual assault, non-sexist education and classroom practices.

Maureen developed courses and training kits for the Department such as job application and interview skills, and presented training courses in a variety of areas including assertiveness skills and career planning.

She was pleased to have joined the Centre for Staff Development at a time when the importance of career development has been recognised by the University.

She believes that a program of career planning and management should be an integral part of staff development.

Such a program, which balances the University's work-force requirements and the career needs of staff can lead to increased organisational effectiveness and greater job satisfaction for staff members.

Honorary Degrees, Fellowships announced

The University Council has approved invitations for the award of two Honorary Degrees and two Fellowships of the University.

The awards, to be conferred at the May Graduation ceremonies, will be given to Professor John Passmore, Ted Tobin, Brian Loton and Con Martin.

Professor Passmore will receive an Honorary Doctor of Letters degree for outstanding achievement in furthering the discipline of philosophy, as academic, writer and commentator.

Mr Tobin will be presented with a Fellowship of the University for fostering athletic and sporting talent in the young people of the region and his contribution to the University.

Mr Loton will get an Honorary Doctor of Science degree for outstanding leadership and services to the Australian Steel industry which has provided support for this region and to the University.

Mr Martin's award is a Fellowship of the University for contributions to the mining industry and to the development of mining engineering studies at the University.

Professor Passmore and Mr Tobin will receive their awards on Wednesday 13 May, 10am.

Mr Loton and Mr Martin will be honoured on Thursday 14 May at 9.45am

AISC Senior Engineer, Jose Zaragoza presented a certificate to Peter Milevski at a ceremony on Thursday 12 March

Peter Milevski gets AISC award

The University of Wollongong has selected Peter Milevski for the 1991 Australian Institute of Steel Construction (AISC) Steel Design Award.

The award acknowledges excellence in steel-related subjects of third year engineering students.

Peter received a $200 cheque and the opportunity to compete for an AISC graduate award this year, which offers an overseas trip for work experience.

The awards are part of AISC's comprehensive Education Strategy which include lectures to students, a special category of student membership and providing lecturers and students with resource material on steel construction.

Academic Employment Wollongong - 2000

The report of the Senate Standing Committee Working Party on Academic Employment, entitled 'Academic Employment Wollongong - 2000' has been distributed by E-mail.

The report is directed primarily at members of the academic staff, but may have interest for others as well.

Chairperson of the Academic Senate, Helen Gamble, said the report is the result of 12 months work of the working party and a consultant involving discussions and forums with people from all sections of the campus.

It puts forward proposals to ensure Wollongong University remains competitive in attracting staff and students into the 2000s.

The report has been tabled before the Standing Committee and will be discussed at Senate during coming months.

Staff who are not on E-mail are requested to obtain a copy from the Departmental Administrative Assistants or another member of the Department.
