The publication was carried through by Messrs. McDonald and Southern on the editorial side and they have contributed some valuable addenda. Both gentlemen are also members of the A.R.H.S.

Printing was supervised by Mr. C. W. Gardiner-Garden of Illawarra Business Services Pty. Ltd., and we are also deeply grateful to him for his services.

The above members, in our opinion, have done a very good job.

“BEHIND BROULEE — A History of the Central South Coast of New South Wales” by William A. Bayley, F.R.A.H.S.

We have been advised that a new book by our research officer appeared at Christmas time under the above title. It covers the area between Mount Dromedary and Pigeon House Mountain, the approximate tract of the Eurobodalla Shire.

The book, containing 95 pages of letterpress, plus 11 of pictures and map, printed on pure white paper and with an attractive cover, is a valuable record of the history of the district covered. The book is really a revised edition of Mr. Boyley’s “Commonwealth Jubilee History of the Central South Coast of N.S.W.” written in the early forties and published by the Shire Council in 1951, long out of print.

The new book contains material not in the first one and brings up-to-date the history of this growing tourist and dairying district.

At 7s. 6d. the book is obtainable from the Eurobodalla Shire Council at Moruya. Add one shilling for postage.
