

GRADUATION

1982

Below left:
Mr Ben Meek pictured with his daughter Linda Meek, who was awarded her Bachelor of Arts degree at the ceremonies.

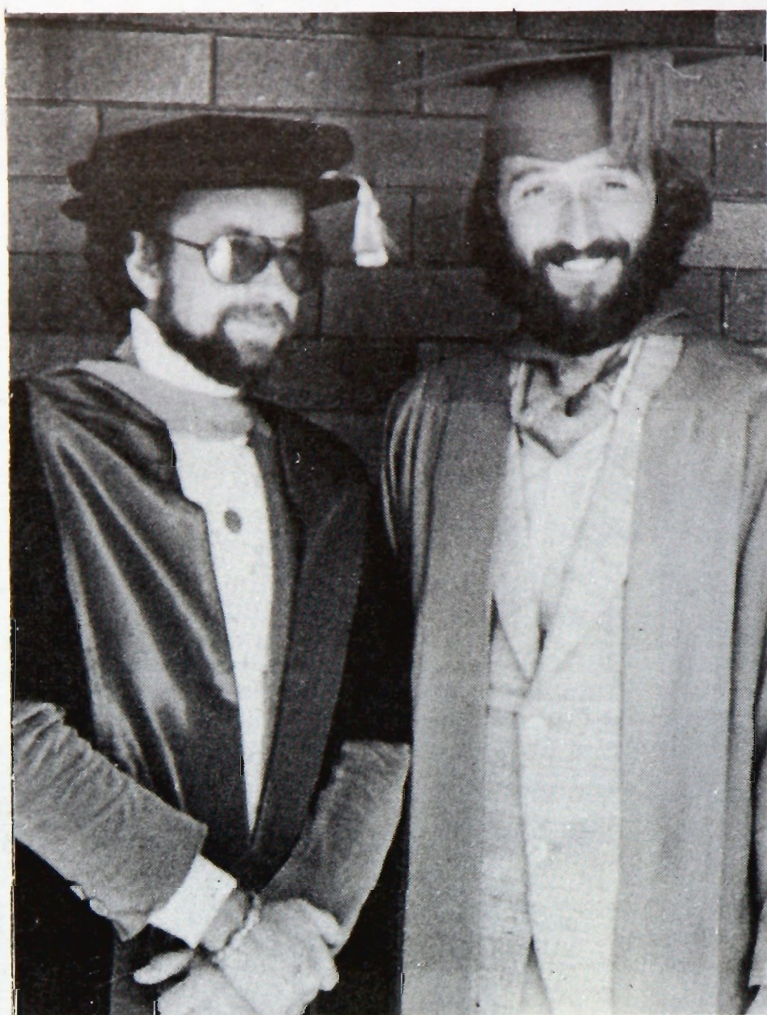

Below right:
Mr Ron Mullock, Minister for Education, delivered the occasional address at the Thursday afternoon ceremony.

Staff members of the Department of Civil and Mining Engineering, including the departmental chairman, Professor Bill Upfold, turned out in force to celebrate with the graduating class of '82.

Top left:
Dr. Tom Jagtenberg is pictured with Professor Steve Hill. Dr. Jagtenberg was awarded his doctorate (Department of Sociology).

Top centre:
Tom Parkinson, Bachelor of Commerce (with merit) was also awarded the Corporate Affairs Commission Prize for his studies. He is pictured with his wife and family.

Below centre:

Dr. Alan Twomey, pictured with his wife, Christine, was awarded his doctorate (Dept. of Education). He receives a congratulatory handshake from the Chancellor Mr. Justice Hope and Dr. Phillip de Lacey.

Below far right:

Dr. Glen Mitchell (Dept. of History) was awarded his doctorate at the ceremonies. He agreed to pose for Campus News together with Professor Jim Hagan.

Below left:

The long awaited graduation day had finally arrived for Russell Jennings and his wife Sonia. Russell was awarded his Bachelor of Engineering degree.

Right:

Jennifer Merran Thurgate, Bachelor of Commerce (with merit) had the added distinction of being awarded the Annual Prize by the Australian Society of Accountants.

Above:

The 1982 Graduation ceremonies presented the first opportunity for the Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Ken McKinnon (right), to preside over the ceremonies in his official capacity. He is pictured on the lawn after the ceremonies with the University Secretary, Mr. Challice Moldrich (left) and the Chancellor Mr. Justice Hope (centre).