OBITUARIES

Since the September issue went to press, we have suffered the loss of the following members:

Mrs. Joan Gear, who was a regular attender at meetings and excursions, as well as being one of our museum supervisors. She was also active in St. Luke’s Anglican Church at Dapto and the Illawarra Music Club.

Mrs. Annie Blanche Bradford (Brad), wife of another member, Mr. E.B. Bradford. The Bradfords were two of the earliest members of the Society.

Mr. Howard Akitt, a member for many years and for some time a Councillor of the Society whose membership had lapsed recently because of ill health.

In all instances, sympathy is extended to relatives and friends.

EXCURSION TO BERRY

After three days of constant rain, the 43 people who travelled to Berry on Sunday, 15 September were both relieved and delighted to find a perfect Spring day.

First stop was at Kiama, where we combined morning tea with a visit to the Pilot’s House, now tastefully restored and ready for fitting out as a museum by the Kiama Historical Society. Fran Whalan showed us around this little gem of humble domestic architecture, now revealing again its original stone and brick exterior, as well as the cedar joinery inside.
