

DRAWING IN THE ILLAWARRA

There is a marvellous (though patchy) exhibition of drawings, some dating from the 50's, 60's and 70's at the Long Gallery at the University of Wollongong at the moment. It's worth trying to catch before it closes. The catalogue does not contain any photos of the images on display but it does contain a really fine description, by artist Ian Gentle, of what it's like to live in the Clifton School of Arts. This brief description alone makes the catalogue worth obtaining.
