PROLOGUE

I grew lonely for a song to weave with flakes of iron-grey and lift the tone to silver-white watch them dazzle in the light

So came through centuries of lies from dungeons, virgin lives, guarding gold, precious stones and breathing tongues of fire to where a range of notes from steel rose like pearls towards the sun each hung more perfect than the last reflecting prisms I had never seen and through the rise and fall of sound I heard the sigh of freedom’s song breaking chains, shredding myths losing fears and forging dreams

It told the story of our lives Now scales have fallen from my eyes
