Women and Loyal Orange Lodges in Australia

Eric Turner

This is a work-in-progress. It backgrounds the Loyal Orange institution from its inception in Ireland, its early involvement in colonial politics and its tumultuous establishment in Sydney in 1845 and the entry of women into its lodges during the 19th century.