ST. MICHAEL'S ANGLICAN CHURCH ORGAN ARRIVES:

(Illawarra Mercury, 1877).

Wollongong: St. Michael's Church of England organ arrives, 5/1/1877. Inaugurated with special services. Rev. Canon O'Reilly, of St. Phillip's Church, arrived with organ on Monday, 8th January, with two carpenters. Rev. O'Reilly practical and experienced in handling.

Builders, Messrs. Walker and Son, of Tottenham Court Road, London. Built to order of the churchwardens. Technical description given, including stops. Cost £250, plus freight, etc. £50. 12/1/1877.

St. Michael's new organ obtained from England and placed in position (last week). Used for first time Sunday evening, January 14. Mr. Scrutton, organist of St. Peter's Church, Sydney, presided. Organ 16' 9" high. 16/1/1877.

(Remodelling was suggested in "Illawarra Mercury" of 17/4/1884).

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH.

Bible, Prayer Book and Communion service books presented by fifteen ladies to the church to replace the books previously in use for 30 years. Full account given in "Illawarra Mercury," 10/1/1879.