Elections in July

The terms of office of all elected members of the University Council (with the exception of parliamentary members) are due to expire in August, 1981.

Elections will be held prior to the expiry dates and notices calling for nominations will be posted towards the end of session 1.

Members of the University may wish to note that, in accordance with the provisions of the University of Wollongong By-laws, the Council has made a Regulation which provides for the retirement in rotation of elected members in the various categories. As a result, the terms of office of the members elected in 1981 will be as follows:

(a) Student members:
- one member - two year term;
- one member - one year term;
(b) Convocation members:
- one member - three year term;
- one member - two year term;
- one member - one year term;
(c) academic staff members:
- one professorial and the non-professorial member - three year term;
- one professorial member - two year term;
- one professorial member - one year term;
(d) members elected by Council:
- one member - three year term;
- one member - two year term;
- one member - one year term;
(e) general staff member:
- one member - three year term.

In each category for which more than one member is to be elected, the procedures for determining the terms of office are as follows:

(1) the candidate with the highest number of votes will be elected to the position with the longest term of office;
(2) the candidate with the next highest number of votes will be elected to the position with next longest term of office;
(3) and so on for any remaining vacant positions.

B. C. Moldrich.
University Secretary.
A night out with Friends

LEFT: Australian composer Peter Sculthorpe introduces his music at "An Evening of History and Music" organised by the Friends of the University of Wollongong during Heritage Week.

BELOW: The Friends of the University of Wollongong gather for the first time during Heritage Week for an evening of history and music. The highly successful evening is expected to be the first of many, according to 'Friends' organisers.
The Friends conducted their first function on 27 March, 1981. A packed audience, many seated on garden furniture which they had squeezed in from the lawn outside, listened to an enthralling mixture of poetry, music and history.

Sydney cellist, David Pereira, performed Peter Sculthorpe's sonorous "Requiem for 'Cello Alone'", and many music lovers afterwards commented that it would have been hard to equal the performance anywhere else in the world.

Local artist Karen Segal gave a fine interpretation of Sculthorpe's violin solo piece "Irkanda 1".

The Guest of Honour, Emeritus Professor Russell Ward, gave the Heritage Week address on the subject of "Breaker Morant - the making of an Australian Folk Hero". Ward's down to earth description of the Boer War and the Australian attitudes of the day held everyone's attention.

The whole evening was held together with a selection of poems (James Wieland) and folk songs (John Broomhall) ranging from the songs and ballads of the convict days up to the poetry of Les Murray, Bruce Dawe, and Gwen Harwood.

The Friends agreed afterwards that the atmosphere of the evening had been electrifying and that the programme had everything in it to mark the best in our heritage.

More events of different kinds are being planned for the future.

The Australian Vice-Chancellors' Committee has given preliminary consideration to Volume 1 of the Report of the Tertiary Education Commission for the Triennium 1982 - 84.

The Chairman of the Committee, Professor D. W. George said the AVCC was making a detailed study of the Report.

Representatives will meet the Minister for Education (the Hon. Wail Fife) towards the end of April when clarification of some aspects of the Report will be sought. Considered views of the AVCC will be conveyed to him.

The AVCC:

- Welcomes the TEC's reiterated statement that "universities have a special institutional commitment to scholarship and research and to training scholars and research workers". (Para 9.59)
- Welcomes the TEC's recognition that there has been insufficient financial provisions for universities in the last five years.
- Endorses strongly the TEC's support for the maintenance of triennial funding and its extension to equipment grants.
- Welcomes the TEC's support for increased provision for postgraduate and post-doctoral awards and special research centres of excellence.
- Endorses the TEC's criticisms of the continued inadequacies of the Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme.
- Welcomes the TEC's recommendation for increased funds for equipment in all sectors of tertiary education.
- Welcomes the TEC's recognition of the serious problems facing universities in providing superannuation for their staff but believes that its recommendations are inadequate.
- Regrets that the advice of the Universities Council, prepared after critical examination of submissions from the universities was not fully accepted by the TEC.

THEATRE

Theatre South are delighted to announce the extension of the first production in its premiere season, David Williamson's TRAVELLING NORTH.

Artistic director Des Davis, in announcing the extended season, said that the company was excited by the enthusiastic response of both audiences and critics alike.

"This strengthens our belief that Wollongong is ready for a professional theatre company. We are now assured that we can fulfill such a need in our community. This will bring Wollongong into line with other major cities in New South Wales: Newcastle, Armidale and Wagga each has its own thriving professional company."

"Our audiences have been consistently growing since opening night, and extra seating has had to be provided. We are sure there are still people wanting to see this production before it closes, if we are to judge by our advance bookings."

The season will continue its run at the Technical College Theatre, 8 p.m. from Wednesday 8th - Saturday 11th April.

University of Queensland, specially commissioned for the 51st ANZAAS Congress.

The first ANZAAS Congress was held in Sydney in 1888, and has grown from a 10-section, two yearly event, to a 33 section, annual event.

Six previous ANZAAS Congresses have been held in Brisbane - in 1895, 1909, 1930, 1951, 1961, and 1971.

This year's Congress will mark the first award of the ANZAAS-Eso Energy prize of a table sculpture and $2500 to the individual or individuals making an outstanding contribution to science, engineering or technology, or effectively applying current knowledge resulting in the efficient use of the conversion or conservation of energy.

Nominations for this award will close at the end of February.

ANZAAS organising committee chairman, Mr. Allan Morgan, said the principal aim of ANZAAS was to encourage communication of scientific advances among scientists, and between scientists and the public.

"No other organisation exists in this part of the world to provide such a uniquely accessible forum," he said.

A Congress section has been designed for schools, and members of the public are invited to attend day sessions or enrol for the week by contacting ANZAAS Executive Officer, Mr. Bruce Green at 377 3674, or Mrs. Anna Palthe at 229 1088.
