ST. MICHAEL’S CHURCH OF ENGLAND, WOLLONGONG,
SUNDAY, 16th JULY, 1961.

A service was held at historic St. Michael’s to commemorate the 130th anniversary of the first church service in Wollongong.

The service was conducted by the Rector, the Rev. B. H. Williams, the lessons being read by Mr. F. M. Osborne, Minister for Repatriation (a descendant of the pioneer Osborne family), and Mr. Justice Richardson.

The church was crowded and the congregation included the local State Member Mr. Rex Connor, the Mayoress of the Municipality, together with Aldermen and their wives.

The Society was represented by a number of the Officers and members, special seating being provided in the Church.
