JAMBEROO METHODIST CHURCH:

The "Kiama Independent" of Friday, July 11, 1879, noted "that during the boisterous weather which prevailed on Sunday night last, the steeple of the new Wesleyan Church, at Jamberoo, was blown down causing an amount of damage to the roof of that building". (The steeple has never been re-erected).

THE SOCIETY'S BADGES:

These are still available at four shillings (4/-) each for the brooch type and ten shillings (10/-) mounted on souvenir spoons.
