

MADDEN'S PLAINS

The name is said to be derived from the Madden family, who had land at Thirroul. Their cattle roamed over the open swamp country above the escarpment, which became known as Madden's Plains. Members of the family afterwards had land at Avondale and Balgownie.